Planning Your Belize Getaway

Getting There

Belize City's Philip S. W. Goldson International Airport (BZE) is the main gateway to the country. Direct flights are available from major cities in North and Central America, as well as Europe.

Getting Around

The best way to get around Belize is by rental car. This gives you the freedom to explore at your own pace. However, if you prefer public transportation, buses and water taxis connect major destinations.

Where to Stay

Belize offers a wide range of accommodation options, from budget-friendly guesthouses to luxurious resorts. Ambergris Caye and Placencia are popular tourist hubs, while Caye Caulker and Hopkins Village offer a more relaxed atmosphere.

What to Eat

Belizean cuisine is a vibrant blend of Mayan, Creole, and Garifuna influences. Must-try dishes include rice and beans, ceviche, conch fritters, and stew chicken.

When to Go

Belize has a warm and sunny climate year-round. The dry season (November to April) is the best time to visit, as it offers optimal weather conditions for outdoor activities.

Visa Requirements

Citizens of most countries do not need a visa for stays of up to 30 days. However, it's always advisable to check the latest visa requirements with the Belizean embassy or consulate.

Creating Your Itinerary

The ideal length of your Belize vacation depends on your interests and budget. If you have limited time, a 7-day itinerary is recommended, focusing on the highlights of Ambergris Caye and the Cayo District.

For a more comprehensive experience, a 10-day or 14-day itinerary allows you to explore additional destinations, such as the Placencia Peninsula or Turneffe Atoll.

Here's a sample itinerary for a 7-day Belize vacation:

1. Arrive in Belize City and take a water taxi to Ambergris Caye (1 night)
2. Snorkel or dive at the Hol Chan Marine Reserve (1 night)

4. Fly to San Ignacio in the Cayo District (2 nights)
5. Explore the Actun Tunichil Muknal Caves (ATM Caves)
6. Visit the Caracol Mayan ruins (2 nights)
7. Depart from Belize City

This itinerary can be customized based on your interests and time constraints. For example, if you're more interested in relaxation, you can spend more time on the beaches of Ambergris Caye or Hopkins Village. If you're an adventure enthusiast, you can add more activities, such as zip-lining or cave tubing.
