The TOEFL iBT Reading section is designed to assess your ability to read and understand academic texts in English. The section consists of three to four passages, each followed by a set of questions. The passages are selected from a variety of academic disciplines, such as social sciences, natural sciences, and the humanities.

Format of the TOEFL iBT Reading Section

The TOEFL iBT Reading section is divided into three parts:

1. Passage 1: The first passage is approximately 700 words long and is followed by 10 questions.
2. Passage 2: The second passage is approximately 800 words long and is followed by 10 questions.

3. Passage 3: The third passage is approximately 900 words long and is followed by 10 questions.

In addition to the three required passages, you may also be asked to read a fourth passage. The fourth passage is approximately 600 words long and is followed by 5 questions. The fourth passage is optional, and you can choose whether or not to answer the questions.

Question Types in the TOEFL iBT Reading Section

There are three types of questions in the TOEFL iBT Reading section:

1. Main Idea: These questions ask you to identify the main idea of a passage or paragraph.
2. Supporting Details: These questions ask you to identify specific details that support the main idea of a passage or paragraph.
3. Inference: These questions ask you to make inferences about the meaning of a passage or paragraph based on the information that is provided.

Strategies for Success in the TOEFL iBT Reading Section

There are a number of strategies that you can use to improve your performance in the TOEFL iBT Reading section:

- Preview the passage: Before you start reading the passage, take a few minutes to preview it. This will help you get a sense of the topic and the main ideas of the passage.
- Read actively: As you read the passage, make notes of the main ideas and supporting details. You can also underline or highlight important information.

- Answer the questions carefully: When you answer the questions, make sure that you read the question carefully and that you answer the question completely.
- Time yourself: You have 60 minutes to complete the TOEFL iBT Reading section. Make sure that you pace yourself so that you have enough time to answer all of the questions.
